Reading Festival

Reading is home to the Reading Festival – attended by 90,000 people every year.

07

Reading Railway Station

The renovated Thames Lido first opened to the public in 1902 and is believed to be the oldest surviving outdoor municipal pool of the early Edwardian era.

08

Thames Lido

Reading has the 4th highest start-up rate in the UK, according to the Centre for Cities.

09

Reading Beer Festival

The Reading Half Marathon is held in March every year, with as many as 17,000 entrants, from fun runners to elite athletes taking part.

10

Tamp Culture

Reading's Biscuit Factory, one of 'The Three B's' started as a small bakery in 1822 and by 1914, it employed more than 6,000 people.

11

Oakford Social Club

Reading Beer and Cider Festival is one of the largest beer festivals in the country, with unique craft beverages rarely seen at other events.
